WRIT PETITION No. 23938 of 2005

ORDER: (Per Hon'ble Sri Bilal Nazki, J)

Notice of revision, according to the petitioner, has been given beyond time. During the subsistence of the petition, the final revision order came to be passed and an application for amendment of writ petition was filed. But the main ground of attack remains that the notice was not given within the prescribed time. Since the parties disagree as to when the notice was given and served, the writ petitioner wants to withdraw the petition and challenge the order of revision by way of remedies available under the Act, and seeks liberty to take up the defence of limitation also.

Therefore, the writ petition is dismissed as withdrawn, granting the liberty as sought for. No order as to costs.
